56- choice2

you usually take a look at the first line of the first paragraph in order to find out the main idea of a passage.

57- choice1

"The year 2020 marked 30 years since the first paper was published on a digital intervention for the treatment of depression. It also marked....

Ask yourself what also marked and substitute the year 2020 in the slot. It would definitely add up.

58- choice4

"Given the accelerated adoption of digital interventions, it is both timely and important to ask to what extent digital interventions are effective in the treatment of depression...

59- choice2

All the other choices are explicitly stated in the passage.

60- choice4

- 1) Are digital interventions more effective than teletherapy?
- 2) How efficient are digital interventions in the treatment of depression?
- 3) What are the chief factors that moderate outcomes in digital interventions?

The passage has not actually provided the reader with obvious answers to the highlighted sections.

61- choice3

What is a pidgin language, according to the passage?

- 1) A language invented by slaves that combines elements of different languages.

- 2) A language that borrowed its grammar system from the language of the landowner.
- 3) A simple language created by slaves as a solution to the lack of a shared language.
- 4) A language spoken by slaves of different ethnicities to communicate with the landowner.

The highlighted parts seem to prove the choice as incorrect.

62- choice 1

They have little in the way of grammar, and in many cases it is difficult for a listener to deduce when an event happened, and who did what to whom. Speakers need to use circumlocution in order to make their meaning understood.

63- choice2

Slave children did not simply copy the strings of words uttered by their elders, they adapted their words to create a new, expressive language.

64- choice3

Some linguists believe that many of the world's most established languages were creoles at first. The English past tense...

65- choice4

inborn; natural.

66- choice3

The Ancient Egyptians and Chinese played board games for leisure medieval nobles and peasants enjoyed story-telling cave people have chosen to eat tortoises instead of mammoths

67- choice2

we are conditioned to take the easy route/laziness.

68- choice3

The first essential thing to do is to establish what happiness means to you

69- choice1

Life is...weird. It's exciting, fun, eventful. And sometimes, just a bit messy. Things can go left. Things will never be stable. And depending on the circumstances, emotions can fluctuate.

The highlighted words altogether show unpredictability.

70- choice2

“So, to forget our worries, we binge, we eat, we shop, we drop. But this isn't happiness.”

The first essential thing to do is to establish what happiness means to you
